NEW & NEW YORK

Apple Carnegie Library 801 K STREET NW

Past and present intersect in this Beaux-Arts gem, today boasting a 19,000-square-foot Apple retail store and once home to DC's Central Public Library, originally backed by Andrew Carnegie and opened in 1903. Designed by Foster + Partners in close partnership with Apple's Chief Design Office Jony Ive, the new building was carefully constructed to preserve historic facades, align interiors with the property's original footprints, and reintroduce early 20th-century signatures. Surrounded by a sprawling lawn appealing to urban picnickers and outdoor workout buffs, the building welcomes local artists and creators to lead classes at Apple and is also home to the DC History Center's library and galleries.

Blagden Alley BLAGDEN ALLEY NW

Lined with colorful murals and a treasure trove of bars and restaurants bursting with personality, Blagden Alley is a local nightlife go-to. Watering holes Calico and Lost & Found intermingle with Michelin-renowned hotspots from Tiger Fork to The Dabney—led by chef Jeremiah Langhorne, whose eagerly anticipated second restaurant, Petite Cerise, debuted at 655 New York in March 2023.

Walter E. Washington Convention Center 801 MOUNT VERNON PLACE NW

Situated across from 655 New York, the Convention Center spans an impressive 2.3 million square feet with 1.2 million annual attendees. Hosting an extensive array of 50 programs per year from large-scale conferences and community events to music festivals and fashion shows, the Convention Center is bordered by enticing dining options including modern comfort food standout Unconventional Diner and local market Union Kitchen Grocery.

HERE & HAPPENING

Petite Cerise

1027 7TH STREET NW

This bright, three-story French concept from celebrated chef Jeremiah Langhorne presents authentically prepared, market-fresh French fare morning to night. From airy omelets to crisp baguette sandwiches and bouillabaisse, Petite Cerise touts a wide-ranging menu, enhanced by a curated French wine list and seasonal craft cocktails.

Rumi's Kitchen

640 L STREET NW

Named for 13th-century Persian poet and scholar Jalaluddin Rumi, this upscale restaurant renowned as one of Atlanta's top dining destinations recently made its DC debut to widespread acclaim. Discerning chef and owner Ali Mesghali brings razor-sharp focus to each dish, soaking rice for four to six hours in salt water before preparing and piloting thousands of ground beef blends for delectable kebabs.

Pearl's Bagels

1017 7TH STREET NW

An ode to the art of bagel preparation, Pearl's specializes in hand-rolled, brick oven-baked bagels that perfectly balance chewiness and crispiness. With sustainably sourced ingredients and a simple six-ingredient recipe, Pearl's offers craveable breakfast sandwiches, spreads, drinks, and pantry goods.

Solidcore

1024 6TH STREET NW

National fitness powerhouse Solidcore brings its Pilates-inspired bootcamp workout to 655 New York. Featuring full-body and targeted, muscle-specific classes, Solidcore uses its own resistance-based machine to maximize results.
